Power of One

In 1970, Anita Dorr and Judith Kelleher, two emergency nurses from opposite coasts came together to unite and strengthen the voice of emergency nurses across the country... and the Emergency Nurses Association was born.

The future of your profession is now in your hands.

Strengthen the voice of emergency nurses across the country by following in Anita and Judith's footsteps in reaching out to connect with one emergency nurse during the month of July and encourage them to become part of the united voice of the profession by joining ENA.
